

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The Paris-New York Psychoanalytic Workshop will hold its third meeting this year. Co-directed by Stuart Schneiderman and Jacques-Alain Miller, the Workshop will meet on April 9 and 10 (Saturday and Sunday) in New York City this year (1988). The theme this year will be "Interpretation and the Transference in Lacanian Theory and Practice." For further information regarding the specific place in New York where the Workshop will convene, please contact either Stuart Schneiderman at 310 East 46th Street, Apartment 24H, New York, New York 10017. Telephone (212) 682-6678; or Jacques-Alain Miller, 74, rue d'Assas, 75006 Paris, France. This Workshop is open to all those interested in understanding Lacan's innovations regarding the concept (and use) of the transference.

The next International Encounter of the Freudian Field, the fifth such encounter since 1980, will be held July 13th to 16th, 1988 in Buenos Aires.

Like those which preceded it, this Encounter will involve important work in the development of a psychoanalytic clinic. Following upon our 1986 theme "Hysteria and Obsession," we have chosen the following topic for Buenos Aires: "A Differential Clinic of the Psychoses".

For the Encounter, a several hundred page volume will be published containing reports on work done concerning this subject by groups the world over, usually basing their research on that of Jacques Lacan. This volume will be published in Spanish and French and sent to each of the Encounter's participants.

of the Encounter will provide the first international panorama of Lacanian-oriented research on psychosis.

The 1988 Encounter is being organized by the Fundacion del Campo Freudiano in Argentina, where a commission is handling the registration of Spanish-speaking South Americans. Registration for those coming from all other countries (from Central America, North America, Europe, Japan, etc.) and requests to give papers are being handled by the Freudian Field Commission in France, and in particular by Lilia Mahjoub-Trobas and Dominique Miller.
