

BOOKS AND JOURNALS TO ORDER

Analysis, No. 1, 1989, Published by the Melbourne Centre for Psychoanalytic Research, ed. by Russell Grigg, Leonardo Rodriguez and Diane Wieneke. The contents include the "Geneva lecture on the symptom" by Jacques Lacan, "Elements of Epistemology" by Jacques-Alain Miller, "Psychosis according to Bion" by Diana Rabinovich, "The function of language in the transference" by Russell Grigg, "Is hysteria curable" by Jean-Pierre Klotz, "Primal fantasies and the unconscious" by Carmela Levy, "Leadership and gender: a psychoanalytic perspective" by Susan Long, "Dora and the Name-of-the-Father" by Ellie Ragland-Sullivan, "The phenomenological status of the Lacanian signifier" by Marc Richir, "On the transference" by Leonardo and Silvia Rodriguez, "Transference as resistance" by Diane Wieneke.

Subscription to Analysis is $20.00 American per issue, postage included. One can subscribe to Analysis No. 1 1989 and/or to No. 2 1990. Cheque or money order is payable to the Centre for Psychoanalytic Research, PO. Box 509. Carlton South, Victoria 3053, Australia.

Lacanian Ink. Spring 90. Lacan Circle of New York. A new journal which will be published three times a year by the Lacan Circle of New York. Lacanian Ink aims to the dissemination of the effects of thought and work of Jacques Lacan. Thus, the structural affinity between psychoanalysis and language: it is the founding function of the word, a word out of censorship (hors censure) -acting on his!

132

her desire. Lacanian Ink's groundwork is set up both as a literary discursive dialogue and a self-critical process of discovery. Contents will include articles on psychoanalysis, literature, philosophy, linguistics, plus a Critique section on art, books, symposia, film and theater. A Calendar of Events will carry notices on activities in this country and abroad. A section called Debate will publish the views of readers and students in the Circle. The Lacan Circle of New York has been discussing Lacan's "Seminars" and "Ecrits" since 1987. Members are practising analysts in New York City Lacan Circle of New York, Wooster Press: 133 Wooster St. #7, New York, NY 10012, tel. (212) 475-5604, Editor: Josefina Ayerza. Papers are solicited on topics pertinent to psychoanalysis in the realm of literature, philosophy, linguistics. Clinical concerns as well as questions of gender, race, class, or sexual identity are welcome. We are interested in essays that venture on theories of textual construction as well as literary, film, theater and visual arts criticism from a Lacanian cultural perspective. Papers should be of no more than 3,000 words in length and no less than 600 words. The author should provide two clean, finished copies or an Apple Macintosh compatible diskette (3.5) copy. Send papers to Lacan Circle of New York, c/o Josefina Ayerza. (J.A.)

LANE: le magazine freudien is interested in social symptoms, forms of political discourse, the ideologies of social improvement, mental health and pedagogy, as well as the uncontrolled discourse of science, and cinema-as-anthropology. Publishing and mathematics also have a place; there are interviews with government ministers and marginals alike. LANE serves as a 'mini mass-media outlet for writings reputed to be too difficult for discussion. It is a magazine of current affairs worth collecting. Annual airmail subscription rate for four issues in the USA and Canada: 230FE

Ornicar? Established in 1975 at the Department of Psychoanalysis of the University of Paris VIII, this Review of the Freudian Field is the main organ of diffusion for Lacan's teaching. Ornicar? appears quarterly and, barring exceptions, each number begins with a text by Jacques Lacan. It combines Freudian studies, theoretical papers, clinical cases, and so on. Apart from these areas, and the "Reading Room," section, the 'Analyst's Gallery' presents in every number a profile of one of the leading psychoanalysts of our time. Annual airmail subscription rate for four issues in the USA and Canada: 325FE

133

Both LANE and Ornicar? appear in French. Anyone interested in subscribing or acquiring back issues may inquire of Navarin Editeur, 31, rue de Navarin, 75009, Paris, France. Tel. (1) 878.05-65. One may also request a list of books available in French, published by Navarin. The list is lengthy and diverse.

Lacan and the Subject of Language, ed. by Ellie Ragland-Sullivan and Mark Bracher will appear in November of 1990 with Routledge (New York and London). This book includes new articles by Jacques-Alain Miller, Russell Grigg, Willy Apollon, Slavoj Zizek, Ellie Ragland-Sullivan, Judith Miller, Henry Sullivan, Colette Soler, Stuart Schneiderman, Lila Kalinich. The three sections are "Lacan and the Subject of Language," "Lacan and the Subject of Psychoanalysis," "Lacan and the Subject of Literature." This book may be ordered in cloth or paper from Routledge, Chapman and Hall, Inc., 29 West 35th St., New York, New York 10001-2291. Tel. (212) 244-3336.

134